

LUXURY TRAIN VACATIONS FARES, VALUE & COMPARISON

Luxurious, exclusive passenger trains return you to a romantic golden age in the United States when the time traveling was as anticipated as the destination(s), a bygone era when gracious private rail car hospitality and the finest passenger facilities were enjoyed by a privileged few. Now, vacations on this grandest mode of travel are available in the United States on America's Trains.

Throughout the world fewer than ten splendid trains provide vacations that are comparable to an America's Trains' Journey by Rail. Journeys feature superb facilities, gourmet dining, complimentary beverages, personalized service, and an exceptional overall travel experience that is not otherwise available. Distinctive, unique enjoyment includes five star service, magnificent scenery, and adventurous or tranquil activities at en-route destinations, while living on a luxury rail car.

The cost of this upscale lifestyle on a luxurious private train with unsurpassed amenities and satisfying en-route layovers is greatly exceeded by the many extraordinary delights enjoyed by a limited number of elite guests. Examples of per person per day prices (2016 published) on some of the World's most luxurious and comparable trains follow.
