Activities

Luxury living

that makes into a single bed, with private bathrooms.

All-inclusive service includes finest dining, all kinds of beverages, 24 hour room service, on board enjoyment and impeccable passenger support.

Journey by Rail Cars, traveling with Amtrak and other railroads, stop and park at en-route destinations that include initial departure and final disembarking locations, allowing passengers to live on board while enjoying a never ending selection of optional nearby activities. Cars can be dropped off by one and subsequently picked up by another train to travel to other destinations. Passengers stay on board, avoiding the need to move to and from hotels to enjoy local attractions.

Destinations

Scheduled Journeys on a growing number of routes will be available after introductory training trips are completed.

Journeys by Rail are one of America's finest all-inclusive luxury vacation values. The price of a comparable foreign train vacation is from about $940 up to $1,700 per person per day compared to $850 for a distinctive America's Train Journey.

Journeys are intended to supplement already satisfactory Amtrak services by introducing luxury train travel products that target very affluent domestic and foreign consumers who must presently travel in other countries to experience similar upscale rail vacations; there is no equivalent rail service in the US at this time.

Pending Journeys can be reserved now by making a provisional reservation with no immediate payment or other obligation. Final, departure dates will be confirmed months in advance as final rail Car repair/refurbishing times and final route details are established.
